In Greece whenever you visit somebody you should bring a small present. That's how you show respect to somebody.

WORLD

In Egypt you shouldn't open gifts when you receive them.
People think that's very rude.
You can open your present when you get home.

In Russia you shouldn't give a gift to a baby before his or her birth. It is bad luck to do so sooner.

In Turkey you should drink traditional Turkish tea, when you visit somebody's house. You should drink the whole tea from a cup or a glass. If you don't do it, that means you don't wish good to the house.

In the UK
you should say
"Bless you"
when someone
sneezes.

The

In Serbia when a
baby is born,
people should tear
the father's T-shirt.
That is for good
luck.
