

GEORGE
AND
THE DRAGON

by Maša
& Iva

Once upon a time

There was a strong man named George. George travelled all over the world.

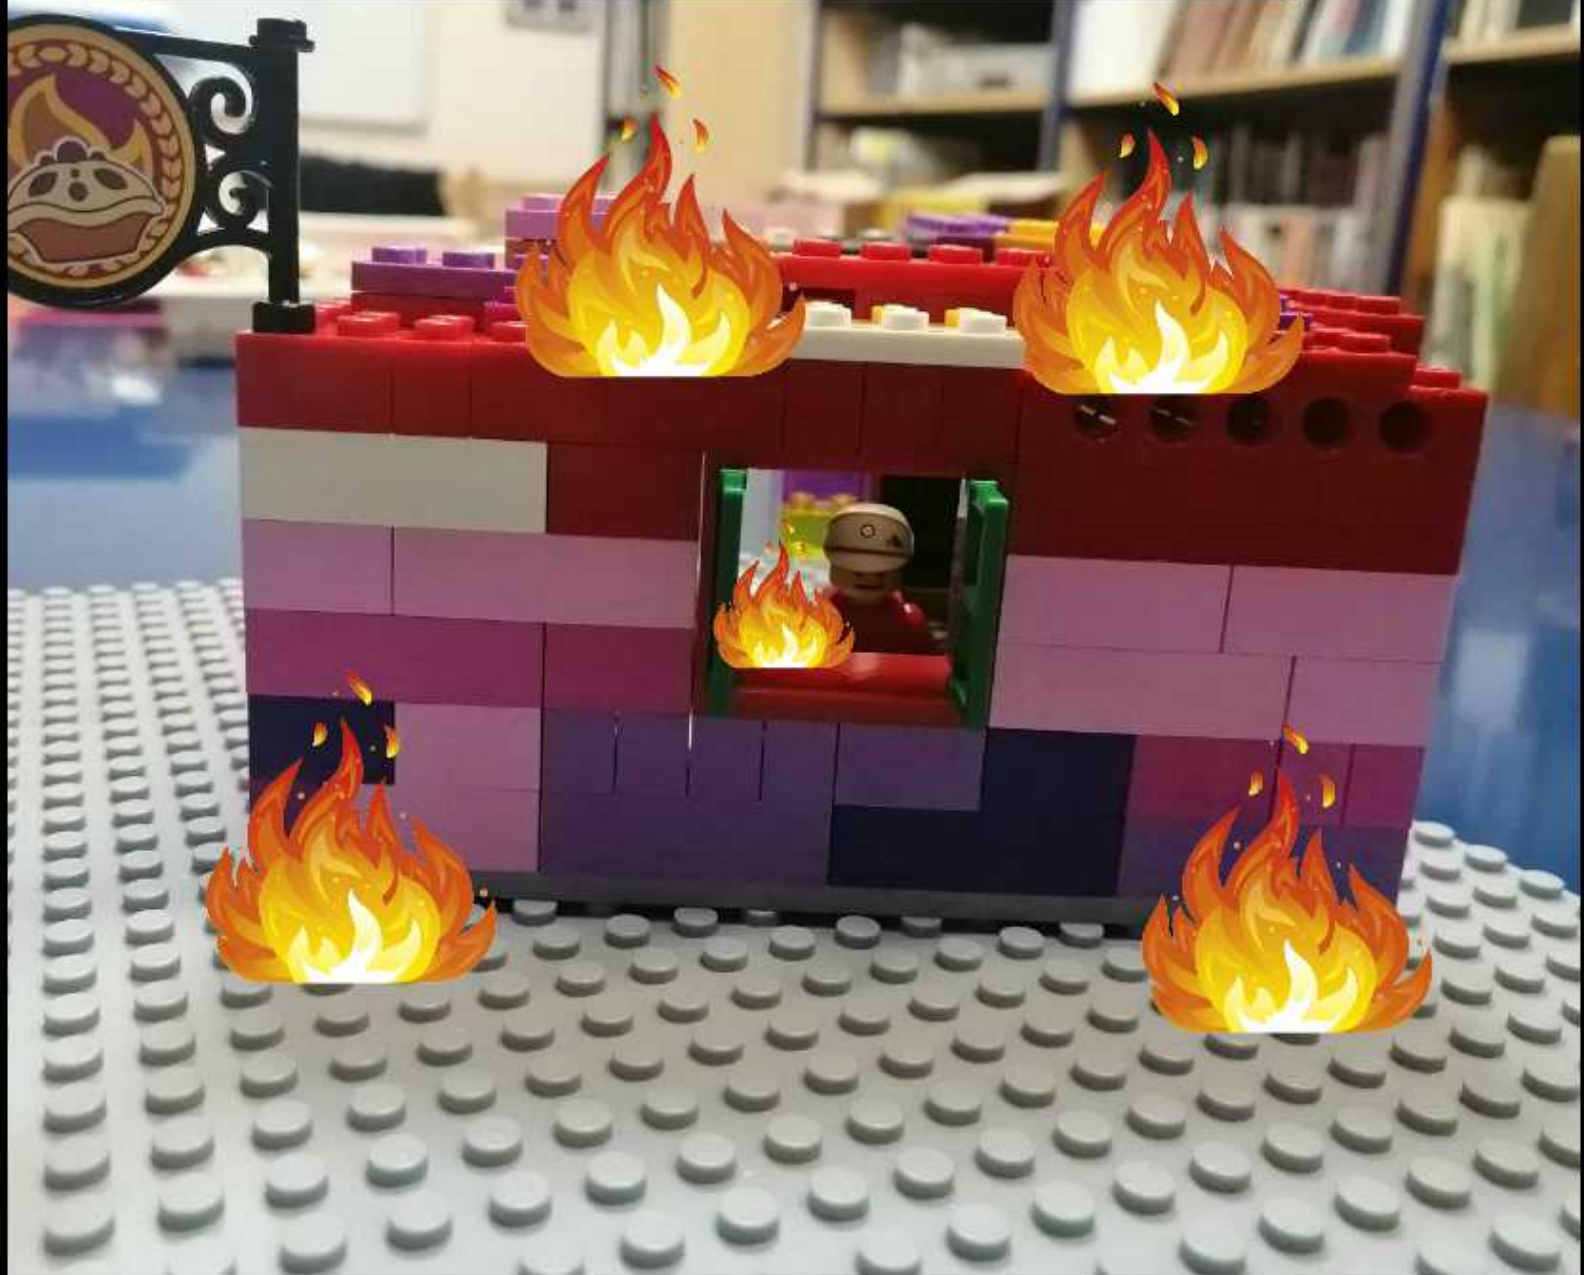

George met the old man and the man told him about a dragon. The dragon lived in the nearby lake. It attacked people in the village next to the lake.

Villagers gave all
their gold
to the dragon. But that didn't help.

Dragon burnt the
inn. The people in village
were terrified.

King decided to give his daughter, the princess, to dragon.

Soldiers
gave princess
to the dragon.

When George
heard that, he went to save her.

George
faught the dragon and killed it.

SMASH!

A LEGO minifigure wedding scene. In the center, a white archway stands on a grey base. To the left, a bride with blonde hair and a red dress sits on a white bench. To the right, a groom with brown hair and a black shirt sits on a white bench. A priest with a grey head and a red shirt stands in the aisle, facing the couple. In the background, a blue wall features a central shield with a red lion, flanked by two golden crowns. Two red and blue banners with golden crowns hang on either side. A black candelabra with three lit white candles stands to the right. The scene is set on a grey base with white walls and a white picket fence in the foreground.

George saved
the princess.
They got married.

And they lived happily ever after.

KISS

The End